

Group name: Rural WONCA 2019 Conference

Dates: October 12-15, 2019

Place: Albuquerque Convention Center

Albuquerque Tourism & Sightseeing Factory (AT&SF) is pleased to offer the following tours and events for the 2019 Rural WONCA Conference. We have a box office conveniently located adjacent to the Albuquerque Convention Center inside the Hyatt Regency Albuquerque. AT&SF staff will be on site to provide customer service to conference attendees. All tours below depart from the Hyatt Regency unless otherwise noted.

AT&SF tours and events below can be made available for purchase online at www.atsfworks.com/WONCA.

Saturday, October 12th

Sunday, October 13th

Monday, October 14th

8PM - 9:45PM

Albucreepy Downtown Ghost Walk

Departs from Hyatt Regency

Price: $30

Tour description: Beneath the towering office buildings and twinkling lights of modern downtown Albuquerque lurk the memories of public hangings, duels, horrific murders and locations haunted by those who have passed over to the other side. Tales of vengeful lovers, gang fights and mysterious specters await around every turn. What better way to experience Albuquerque's history than to possibly come face to face with a spirit from the past?

The 100-minute Albucreepy Downtown Ghost Walk will guide you past 1.3 miles of Albuquerque's dark side, including historic (and reportedly haunted) sites such as the KiMo Theater, old Bernalillo County Courthouse, the Wool Warehouse, Freed Building and more. As you walk, your guide will reveal vivid accounts of Albuquerque's most popular ghosts, explain methods used to detect paranormal activity, and discuss previous investigations at downtown locations.

Sunday, October 13th 4pm - 7:30pm

Monday, October 14th 2pm - 3:45pm

ABQ Trolley Co: Best of ABQ City Tour

Departs from Albuquerque Convention Center

Price: $35

Tour description: Albuquerque magnificently glows with its culture, food, art and people. We'll take you by the most historic and popular areas of the Duke City aboard a unique, open-air Trolley. Learn what Albuquerque has to offer from the Tour Guide on board, who will provide a multimedia tour experience. Explore areas such as Old Town, Nob Hill, a beach, a castle, film locations from "Breaking Bad" and more! Just when you thought it couldn't get any better, get the inside scoop of where to find Albuquerque's hidden gems. Discover why this is the best first thing to do in Albuquerque.

Monday, October 14th

4pm - 7:30pm

ABQ Trolley Co: BaD Tour (Breaking Bad Tour)

Departs from Albuquerque Convention Center

Price: $80

Tour description: Featured in USA Today, People magazine, LA Times, The Huffington Post, Travel Channel and more, the BaD Tour is the first ever Breaking Bad locations tour of Albuquerque. Breaking Bad is the Emmy-winning television series that was shot on location in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Spend 3.5 hours with ABQ Trolley Co. as we tour Walter White and Jesse Pinkman's Albuquerque. There will be Breaking Bad trivia and great prizes from local Albuquerque businesses given out on the tour. The BaD Tour is approximately 38 miles long. A restroom break and complimentary drink will be provided approximately 1-hour into the tour at Twisters Grill (Los Pollos Hermanos). There will be a second restroom stop at the A1A Car Wash.

Saturday, October 12th

12PM - 1:45PM

11 AM - 12:45PM

Albu-Quirky Downtown Weird Walk

Departs from Hyatt Regency

Price: $25

Tour description: Part history, part mystery, and lots of eccentricity, this walking tour showcases the kooky side of the city. From A-bombs to Zsa Zsa and every quirky thing between, you'll find out why Albuquerque was recently ranked the fifth quirkiest city in the USA by Travel + Leisure . This laid-back tour features the outlandish personalities, bizarre crimes and curious events that shaped the Duke City's oddball identity. Along the way, you'll be surrounded by historic buildings, public art, a giant Adirondack chair and film sites (including The Avengers, Breaking Bad and Better Call Saul). The more you discover, the weirder this place gets!